Ag. 1. The meeting was presided by Dr. Indrani Deb, Principal, Nistarini College. She informed the house that there was no incident of ragging at Nistarini College (including the hostels) during the last five years. She mentioned that the college was closed for most of the year during March 2020 to December, 2021 and hence there was no scope of any type of wrong doing during this period. She also reiterated that Nistarini College has a legacy of maintaining a peaceful and student friendly atmosphere, and that there was never an incident of ragging.

She also emphasized that this tradition should be maintained for the coming years as well. The house unanimously proposed that the Anti-Ragging Committee should conduct an awareness programme with the 1st Semester students during the Induction meeting to enlighten them regarding the laws and activities of Anti-Ragging and encourage them not to indulge in ragging related activities during their tenure at Nistarini College.

Since there were no other issues, the meeting was ended with a vote of thanks to the Chair.
