RULES FOR GUIDANCE OF THE CANDIDATE

- The examination will be held according to the programme previously notified.
- The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened, half an hour on the first day and 15 minutes on subsequent days, before the time appointed for the commencement of the examination. Five minutes before the commencement of the examination, a Warning Bell will be rung as a signal for all students to take their seats when all candidates must take their respective allotted seats bearing the Roll number given in the Admit Card.
- Candidates shall bring their respective Admit Card and the University Registration Certificate every day of the Examination and shall produce them for inspection, whenever required. Candidates are liable to be expelled from the Examination Hall for failure to produce the Admit Card or the University Registration Certificate.
- Candidates suffering from any form of contagious or infectious diseases, or from any illness or diseases considered to be prejudicial to the general body of students under examination, will not be admitted into or allowed to remain in the Examination Hall. Special arrangements may however, be made for candidates who are suffering from certain categories of diseases if application is made to the officer-in-charge with sufficient notice.
- Before entering the Examination Hall candidates must deposit at a place set aside for the purpose books notes or other incriminating materials which are forbidden for candidates to have in their possession. Such articles may be left there only at the candidates' own risk. No dictation, except absolutely blank one, should be used by a candidate as a support of the answer book during writing. Candidates found in possession of any incriminating material(s) while under examination in contravention of these rules shall be liable to penalties including expulsion.
- Under no circumstances will a candidate be allowed to appear at an examination at any place other than one approved by the University.
- No candidate will be admitted or given a question paper more than 15 minutes after the examination has commenced provided that in special circumstances the officer-in-charge may admit a candidate who is late by not more than half an hour. In such case(s) he/she must complete the examination within time as specified in the examination programme.
- Communication of any sort or in any form is strictly forbidden between candidates and other person whether inside or outside the Examination Hall. Smoking in the Examination Hall is strictly forbidden.
- Candidates are required to sign their names and prove their identity as and when required to do so.
- Candidates shall use main answer books and additional loose sheets supplied by the University. The answer books and loose sheets should be properly filed in by the candidates. Candidates must not write their names, names of the colleges or any other things which may disclose their identity on any page of the answer books. Candidates must not write any objectionable or improper remarks in their answer books.
- Candidates must not write anything on any question paper or other paper, or carry away any writing or scribbles from the Examination Hall.
- No candidate will be allowed to leave the Examination Hall until an hour has elapsed from the time when the papers are given out.
- No candidate shall be allowed to finally leave the Examination Hall without submitting the answer book tagged with all the loose sheets. No candidate shall be allowed to re-enter the Examination Hall during the hours of examination once leaving it after submission of the answer book.
- A warning bell will be rung every day five minutes before the time fixed for the close of the examination.
- At the close of the examination a candidate must remain seated until his/her answer book is collected by the invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to remain in the Examination Hall after the close of the examination, except to allow respective answer books to be collected by the invigilator.
- Candidates are warned against any attempt to adopt unfair means at the examination. Any breach or attempted breach of any of these or other examination rules will render them liable to expulsion and to any other penalty as the University may deem fit.
- Non-programming calculators not having memory safeguard facility may be used during examination for calculation purpose.
- Applications for review of results, if permissible as per the regulation, must be submitted within 15 working days from the date of issue (as will be indicated on the body of the marksheet) to the relevant authorities.
- Candidates securing pass/qualifying marks in subject even after remaining absent in one or two papers at any University Examination (both P.O. and U.G.) will be considered to have passed/qualified in that subject if not otherwise specifically stated in the regulations for any particular examination, provided that such candidates who will remain absent in one or two papers in a subject may apply for cancellation of their examinations within 7 days of completion of the examination. Such cancellation shall be treated as loss of one chance.
- Notwithstanding the issue of the Admit Card, the University shall have the right for any reasons which may appear to them sufficient, to cancel the admission of any candidate to any examination, whether before, during or after the examination. The University may also debar a candidate from appearing at any subsequent University Examination or Examinations. The decision of the University in all such cases shall be final.
- In any case not covered by the foregoing rules, reference shall be made to the officer-in-charge for special direction, and his decision shall be accepted as final.

18. Applications for review of results, if permissible as per the regulation, must be submitted within 15 working days from the date of issue (as will be indicated on the body of the marksheet) to the relevant marksheets.
19. Candidates securing pass/qualifying marks in subject even after remaining absent in one or two papers at any University Examination (both P.G. and U.G.) will be considered to have passed/qualified in that subject if not otherwise specifically stated in the regulations for any particular examination, provided that such candidates who will remain absent in one or two papers in a subject may apply for cancellation of their examinations within 7 days of completion of the examination. Such cancellation shall be treated as loss of one chance.
20. Notwithstanding the issue of the Admit Card, the University shall have the right for any reasons which may appear to them sufficient, to cancel the admission of any candidate to any examination, whether before, during or after the examination. The University may also debar a candidate from appearing at any subsequent University Examination or Examinations. The decision of the University in all such cases shall be final.
21. In any case not covered by the foregoing rules, reference shall be made to the officer-in-charge for special direction, and his decision shall be accepted as final.
22. Carrying Mobile Phone in Examination Hall is strictly prohibited.

RULES FOR GUIDANCE OF THE CANDIDATE

1. The examination will be held according to the programme previously notified.
2. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened, half an hour on the first day and 15 minutes on subsequent days, before the time appointed for the commencement of the examination. Five minutes before the commencement of the examination, a Warning-Bell will be rung as a signal for all students to take their seats when all candidates must take their respective allotted seats bearing the Roll number given in the Admit Card.
3. Candidates shall bring their respective Admit Card and the University Registration Certificate every day of the Examination and shall produce them for inspection, whenever required. Candidates are liable to be expelled from the Examination Hall for failure to produce the Admit Card or the University Registration Certificate.
4. Candidate suffering from any form of contagious or infectious diseases, or from any illness or diseases considered to be prejudicial to the general body of students under examination, will not be admitted into or allowed to remain in the Examination Hall. Special arrangements may however, be made for candidates who are suffering from certain categories of diseases if application is made to the officer-in-charge with sufficient notice.
5. Before entering the Examination Hall candidates must deposit at a place set aside for the purpose books, notes or other incriminating materials which are forbidden for candidates to have in their possession. Such articles may be left there only at the candidates' own risk. No dictionary, except absolutely blank one, should be used by a candidate as a support of the answer book during writing. Candidates found in possession of any incriminating material(s) while under examination in contravention of these rules shall be liable to penalties including expulsion.
6. Under no circumstances will a candidate be allowed to appear at an examination at any place other than one approved by the University.
7. No candidate will be admitted or given a question paper more than 15 minutes after the examination has commenced provided that in special circumstances the officer-in-charge may admit a candidate who is late by not more than half an hour. In such cases (a) he/she must complete the examination within time as specified in the examination programme.
8. Communication of any sort or in any form is strictly forbidden between candidates and other person whether inside or outside the Examination Hall. Smoking in the Examination Hall is strictly forbidden.
9. Candidates are required to sign their names and prove their identity as and when required to do so.
10. Candidates shall use main answer books and additional loose sheets supplied by the University. The answer books and loose sheets should be properly filled in by the candidate. Candidates must not write their names, names of the colleges or any other things which may disclose their identity on any page of the answer books. Candidates must not write any objectionable or improper remarks in their answer books.
11. Candidates must not write anything on any question paper or other paper, or carry away any writing or scribbles from the Examination Hall.
12. No candidate will be allowed to leave the Examination Hall until an hour has elapsed from the time when the papers are given out.
13. No candidate shall be allowed to finally leave the Examination Hall without submitting the answer book together with all the loose sheets. No candidate shall be allowed to re-enter the Examination Hall during the hours of examination once leaving it after submission of the answer book.
14. A warning bell will be rung every day five minutes before the time fixed for the close of the examination.
15. At the close of the examination a candidate must remain seated until his/her answer book is collected by the invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to remain in the Examination Hall after the close of the examination, except to adjust respective answer books to be collected by the invigilator.
16. Candidates are warned against any attempt to adjust unfair means at the examination. Any breach or attempted breach of any of these or other examination rules will render them liable to expulsion and to any other penalty as the University may deem fit.
17. Non-programming calculators not having memory safeguard facility may be used during examination for calculation purpose.
18. Applications for review of results, if permissible as per the regulation, must be submitted within 15 working days from the date of issue (as will be indicated on the body of the mark sheet) to the relevant marksheet.
19. RULES FOR GUIDANCE OF THE CANDIDATE

- The examination will be held according to the programme previously notified.
- The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened, half an hour and 15 minutes on subsequent days, before the time appointed for the commencement of the examination. Five minutes before the commencement of the examination, a Warning Bell will be rung as a signal for all students to take their seats when all candidates must take their respective allotted seats bearing the Roll number given in the Admit Card.
- Candidates shall bring their respective Admit Card and the University Registration Certificate every day of the Examination and shall produce them for inspection, whenever required. Candidates are liable to be expelled from the Examination Hall for failure to produce the Admit Card or the University Registration Certificate.
- Candidates suffering from any form of contagious or infectious diseases, or from any illness or diseases considered to be prejudicial to the general body of students under examination, will not be admitted and/or allowed to remain in the Examination Hall. Special arrangements may however, be made for candidates who are suffering from certain categories of illness if application is made to the officer-in-charge with sufficient notice.
- Before entering the Examination Hall candidates must deposit at a place set aside for the purpose books, notes or other incriminating materials which are forbidden for candidates to have in their possession. Such articles may be left there only at the candidates' own risk. No clock, watch, except absolutely blank one, should be used by a candidate as a support of the answer book during writing. Candidates found in possession of any incriminating material(s) while under examination in contravention of these rules shall be liable to penalties including expulsion.
- Under no circumstances will a candidate be allowed to appear at an examination at any place other than one approved by the University.
- No candidate will be admitted or given a question paper more than 15 minutes after the examination has commenced provided that in special circumstances the officer-in-charge may admit a candidate who is late by not more than half an hour. In such cases, the candidate must complete the examination within time as specified in the examination programme.
- Communication of any sort or in any form is strictly forbidden between candidates and other person whether inside or outside the Examination Hall. Smoking in the Examination Hall is strictly forbidden.
- Candidates are required to sign their names and prove their identity as and when required to do so.
- Candidates shall use main answer books and additional loose sheets supplied by the University. The answer books and loose sheets should be properly filled in by the candidates. Candidates must not write their names, names of the colleges or any other things which may disclose their identity on any page of the answer books. Candidates must not write any objectionable or improper remarks in their answer books.
- Candidates must not write anything on any question paper or other paper, or carry away any writing or scribbles from the Examination Hall.
- No candidate will be allowed to leave the Examination Hall until an hour has elapsed from the time when the papers are given out.
- No candidate shall be allowed to finally leave the Examination Hall without submitting the answer book tagged with all the loose sheets. No candidate shall be allowed to re-enter the Examination Hall during the hours of examination once leaving it after submission of the answer book.
- A warning bell will be rung every day five minutes before the time fixed for the close of the examination.
- At the close of the examination a candidate must remain seated until his/her answer book is collected by the invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to remain in the Examination Hall after the close of the examination, except to allow respective answer books to be collected by the invigilator.
- Candidates are warned against any attempt to adopt unfair means at the examination. Any breach or attempted breach of any of these or other examination rules will render them liable to expulsion and to any other penalty as the University may deem fit.
- Non-programming calculators not having memory saving card facility may be used during examination for calculation purpose.
- Applications for review of results, if permissible as per the regulation, must be submitted within 15 working days from the date of issue (as will be indicated on the body of the marksheet) to the relevant marksheet.
- Candidates securing pass/qualifying marks in subject even after remaining absent in one or two papers at any University Examination (both P.G. and U.G.) will be considered to have passed/qualified in that subject if not otherwise specifically stated in the regulations. In any particular examination, provided that such candidates who will remain absent in one or two papers in a subject may apply for cancellation of their examinations within 7 days of completion of the examination. Such cancellation shall be treated as loss of one chance.
- Notwithstanding the issue of the Admit Card, the University shall have the right for any reasons which may appear to them sufficient, to cancel the admission of any candidate to any examination, whether before, during or after the examination. The University may also deter a candidate from appearing at any subsequent University Examination or Examinations. The decision of the University in all such cases shall be final.
- In any case not covered by the foregoing rules, reference shall be made to the officer-in-charge for special direction, and the decision shall be accepted as final.

No candidate will be allowed to remain in the Examination Hall after the close of the examination, except to allow respective answer books to be collected by the invigilator.
16. Candidates are warned against any attempt to adopt unfair means at the examination. Any breach or attempted breach of any of these or other examination rules will render them liable to expulsion and to any other penalty as the University may deem fit.
17. Non-programming calculators not having memory safeguard facility may be used during examination for calculation purpose.
18. Applications for review of results, if permissible as per the regulation, must be submitted within 15 working days from the date of issue (as will be indicated on the body of the mark sheet) to the relevant marksheet.
19. Candidates securing pass/qualifying marks in subject even after re-writing class in one or two papers at any University Examination (both P.G. and U.G.) will be considered to have passed/qualified in that subject if not otherwise specifically stated in the regulations for any particular examination, provided that such candidates who will remain absent in one or two papers in a subject may apply for cancellation of their examinations within 7 days of completion of the examination. Such cancellation shall be treated as loss of one chance.
20. Notwithstanding the issue of the Admit Card, the University shall have the right for any reasons which may appear to them sufficient, to cancel the admission of any candidate for an examination, whether before, during or after the examination. The University may also detain a candidate from appearing at any subsequent University Examination or Examinations. The decision of the University in all such cases shall be final.
21. In any case not covered by the foregoing rules, reference shall be made to the officer-in-charge for special directions, and his decision shall be accepted as final.
22. Carrying Mobile Phone in Examination Hall is strictly prohibited.

RULES FOR GUIDANCE OF THE CANDIDATE

1. The examination will be held according to the programme previously notified.
2. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened, half an hour on the first day and 15 minutes on subsequent days, before the time appointed for the commencement of the examination. Five minutes before the commencement of the examination, a Barring Bell will be rung as a signal for all students to take their seats when all candidates must take their respective allotted seats bearing the Roll number given in the Admit Card.
3. Candidates shall bring their respective Admit Card and the University Registration Certificate every day of the Examination and shall produce them for inspection, whenever required. Candidates are liable to be expelled from the Examination Hall for failure to produce the Admit Card or the University Registration Certificate.
4. Candidates suffering from any form of contagious or infectious diseases, or from any illness or diseases considered to be prejudicial to the general body of students under examination will not be admitted into or allowed to remain in the Examination Hall. Special arrangements may, however, be made for candidates who are suffering from certain categories of diseases if notification is made to the officer-in-charge with sufficient notice.
5. Before entering the Examination Hall candidates must deposit at a place set aside for the purpose books, notes or other incriminating materials which are forbidden for candidates to have in their possession. Such articles may be left there only at the candidates' own risk. No dictionary, except absolutely blank one, should be used by a candidate as an aid to the answer book during writing. Candidates found in possession of any incriminating material(s) while under examination in contravention of these rules shall be liable to penalties including expulsion.
6. Under no circumstances will a candidate be allowed to appear at an examination at any place other than one approved by the University.
7. No candidate will be admitted or given a question paper more than 15 minutes after the examination has commenced (provided) that in special circumstances the officer-in-charge may admit a candidate who is late by not more than half an hour. In such cases (if) he/she must complete the examination within time as specified in the examination programme.
8. Communication of any sort or in any form is strictly forbidden between candidates and other persons whether inside or outside the Examination Hall. Smoking in the Examination Hall is strictly forbidden.
9. Candidates are required to sign their names and provide their identity as and when required to do so.
10. Candidates shall use main answer books and additional loose sheets supplied by the University. The answer books and loose sheets should be properly filed in by the candidates. Candidates must not write their names, names of the colleges or any other things which may disclose their identity on any page of the answer book. Candidates must not write any objectionable or improper remarks in their answer books.
11. Candidates must not write anything on any question paper or other paper, or carry away any writing or scribbles from the Examination Hall.
12. No candidate will be allowed to leave the Examination Hall until an hour has elapsed from the time when the papers are given out.
13. No candidate shall be allowed to finally leave the Examination Hall without submitting the answer book tagged with all the loose sheets. No candidate shall be allowed to re-enter the Examination Hall during the hours of examination unless leaving it after submission of the answer book.
14. A warning bell will be rung every day five minutes before the time fixed for the close of the examination.
15. At the close of the examination a candidate must remain seated until his/her answer book is collected by the invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to remain in the Examination Hall after the close of the examination, except to at or respective answer books to be collected by the invigilator.
16. Candidates are warned against any attempt to adopt unfair means at the examination. Any breach or attempted breach of any of these or other examination rules will render them liable to expulsion and to any other penalty as the University may decide.
17. Non-programming calculators not having memory storage facility may be used during examination for calculation purpose.
18. Applications for review of results, if permitted as per the regulation, must be submitted within 15 working days from the date of issue (as will be indicated on the body of the marksheet) to the relevant marksheet.
19. Candidates appearing post-qualifying marks in subject even after remaining absent in one or two papers at any University Examination (both P.G. and U.G.) will be considered to have passed/qualified in that subject if not otherwise specifically stated in the regulations, for any particular examination, provided that such candidates who will remain absent in one or two papers in a subject may apply for cancellation of their examinations within 7 days of completion of the examination. Such cancellation shall be treated as loss of one chance.
20. Notwithstanding the issue of the Admit Card, the University shall have the right for any reasons which may appear to them sufficient, to cancel the admission of any candidate to any examination, whether before, during or after the examination. The University may also cancel a candidate from appearing at any subsequent University Examination or Examinations. The decision of the University in all such cases shall be final.
21. In any case not covered by the foregoing rules, reference shall be made to the officer-in-charge for special direction, and his decision shall be accepted as final.

RULES FOR GUIDANCE OF THE CANDIDATE

1. The examination will be held according to the programme previously notified.
2. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened, half an hour on the first day and 15 minutes on subsequent days, before the time appointed for the commencement of the examination. Five minutes before the commencement of the examination, a Warning Bell will be rung as a signal for all students to take their seats when all candidates must take their respective allotted seats bearing the Roll number given in the Admit Card.
3. Candidates shall bring their respective Admit Card and the University Registration Certificate every day of the Examination and shall produce them for inspection, whenever required. Candidates are liable to be expelled from the Examination Hall for failure to produce the Admit Card or the University Registration Certificate.
4. Candidates suffering from any form of contagious or infectious diseases, or from any illness or diseases considered to be prejudicial to the general body of students under examination will not be admitted into or allowed to remain in the Examination Hall. Special arrangements may however be made for candidates who are suffering from certain categories of diseases if application is made to the officer-in-charge with sufficient notice.
5. Before entering the Examination Hall candidates must deposit at a place set aside for the purpose books, notes or other incriminating materials which are forbidden for candidates to have in their possession. Such articles may be left there only at the candidates' own risk. No clipboard, except absolutely blank one, should be used by a candidate as a support of the answer book during writing. Candidates found in possession of any incriminating materials while under examination in contravention of these rules shall be liable to penalties including expulsion.
6. Under no circumstances will a candidate be allowed to appear at an examination at any place other than one approved by the University.
7. No candidate will be admitted or given a question paper more than 15 minutes after the examination has commenced provided that in special circumstances the officer-in-charge may admit a candidate who is late by not more than half an hour. In such case(s) he/she must complete the examination within time as specified in the examination programme.
8. Communication of any sort or in any form is strictly forbidden between candidates and other person whether inside or outside the Examination Hall. Smoking in the Examination Hall is strictly forbidden.
9. Candidates are required to sign their names and prove their identity as and when required to do so.
10. Candidates shall use main answer books and additional loose sheets supplied by the University. The answer books and loose sheets should be properly filled in by the candidates. Candidates must not write their names, names of the colleges or any other things which may disclose their identity on any page of the answer books. Candidates must not write any objectionable or improper remarks in their answer books.
11. Candidates must not write anything on any question paper or other paper, or carry away any writing or scribbles from the Examination Hall.
12. No candidate will be allowed to leave the Examination Hall until an hour has elapsed from the time when the papers are given out.
13. No candidate shall be allowed to finally leave the Examination Hall without submitting the answer book tagged with all the loose sheets. No candidate shall be allowed to re-enter the Examination Hall during the hours of examination once leaving it after submission of the answer book.
14. A warning bell will be rung every day five minutes before the time fixed for the close of the examination.
15. At the close of the examination a candidate must remain seated until his/her answer book is collected by the invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to remain in the Examination Hall after the close of the examination, except to allow respective answer books to be collected by the invigilator.
16. Candidates are warned against any attempt to adopt unfair means at the examination. Any breach or attempted breach of any of these or other examination rules will render them liable to expulsion and to any other penalty as the University may deem fit.
17. Non-programming calculators not having memory safeguard facility may be used during examination for calculation purpose.
18. Applications for review of results, if permissible as per the regulation, must be submitted within 15 working days from the date of issue (as will be indicated on the body of the marksheets) to the relevant marksheets.
19. Candidates securing pass/qualifying marks in subject even after remaining absent in one or two papers at any University Examination (both P.G. and U.G.) will be considered to have passed/qualified in that subject if not otherwise specifically stated in the regulations for any particular examination, provided that such candidates who will remain absent in one or two papers in a subject may apply for cancellation of their examinations within 7 days of completion of the examination. Such cancellation shall be treated as loss of one chance.
20. Notwithstanding the issue of the Admit Card, the University shall have the right for any reasons which may appear to them sufficient, to cancel the admission of any candidate to any examination, whether before, during or after the examination. The University may also debar a candidate from appearing at any subsequent University Examination or Examinations. The decision of the University in all such cases shall be final.
21. In any case not covered by the foregoing rules, reference shall be made to the officer-in-charge for special direction, and his decision shall be accepted as final.
22. Carrying Mobile Phone in Examination Hall is strictly prohibited.

Such articles may be left there only at the candidates' own risk. No clipboard, except absolutely blank one, should be used by a candidate as a support of the answer book during writing. Candidates found in possession of any incriminating materials(s) while under examination in contravention of these rules shall be liable to penalties including expulsion.
6. Under no circumstances will a candidate be allowed to appear at an examination at any place other than one approved by the University.
7. No candidate will be admitted or given a question paper more than 15 minutes after the examination has commenced provided that in special circumstances the officer-in-charge may admit a candidate who is late by not more than half an hour. In such case(s) he/she must complete the examination within time as specified in the examination programme.
8. Communication of any sort or in any form is strictly forbidden between candidates and other person whether inside or outside the Examination Hall. Smoking in the Examination Hall is strictly forbidden.
9. Candidates are required to sign their names and prove their identity as and when required to do so.
10. Candidates shall use main answer books and additional loose sheets supplied by the University. The answer books and loose sheets should be properly filled in by the candidates. Candidates must not write their names, names of the colleges or any other things which may disclose their identity on any page of the answer books. Candidates must not write any objectionable or improper remarks in their answer books.
11. Candidates must not write anything on any question paper or other paper, or carry away any writing or scribbles from the Examination Hall.
12. No candidate will be allowed to leave the Examination Hall until an hour has elapsed from the time when the papers are given out.
13. No candidate shall be allowed to finally leave the Examination Hall without submitting the answer book tagged with all the loose sheets. No candidate shall be allowed to re-enter the Examination Hall during the hours of examination once leaving it after submission of the answer book.
14. A warning bell will be rung every day five minutes before the time fixed for the close of the examination.
15. At the close of the examination a candidate must remain seated until his/her answer book is collected by the invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to remain in the Examination Hall after the close of the examination, except to allow respective answer books to be collected by the invigilator.
16. Candidates are warned against any attempt to adopt unfair means at the examination. Any breach or attempted breach of any of these or other examination rules will render them liable to expulsion and to any other penalty as the University may deem fit.
17. Non programming calculators not having memory safeguard facility may be used during examination for calculation purpose.
19. Candidates securing pass/qualifying marks in subject even after remaining absent in one or two papers at any University Examination (both P.G. and U.G.) will be considered to have passed/qualified in that subject if not otherwise specifically stated in the regulations for any particular examination, provided that such candidates who will remain absent in one or two papers in a subject may apply for cancellation of their examinations within 7 days of completion of the examination. Such cancellation shall be treated as loss of one chance.
20. Notwithstanding the issue of the Admit Card, the University shall have the right for any reasons which may appear to them sufficient, to cancel the admission of any candidate to any examination, whether before, during or after the examination. The University may also debar a candidate from appearing at any subsequent University Examination or Examinations. The decision of the University in all such cases shall be final.
21. In any case not covered by the foregoing rules, reference shall be made to the officer-in-charge for special direction, and his decision shall be accepted as final.
22. Carrying Mobile Phone in Examination Hall is strictly prohibited.

New Delhi - 110 070Approval Letter

File Number: PDF/2020/001009

Dated: 02-Dec-2020

Subject: Your application for the award of SERB National Post-Doctoral fellowship

Dear Dr. Dipti Karmakar,

We are happy to inform you that your application has been recommended by Science and Engineering Research Board (SERB) for funding under National Post-Doctoral Fellowship Scheme. The following are the items recommended for a period of two years.

Sl. No.	Budget Head	Amount
1.	Fellowship	Rs. 55,000/- per month (+ HRA, as per norms)
2.	Research Grant	Rs. 2,00,000/- per annum
3.	Overheads	Rs. 1,00,000/- per annum

1. This approval letter is valid subject to the fulfilment of the eligibility criteria and submission of requisite documents.
2. You are requested to inform the tentative date of joining the fellowship in the host institute at the earliest by return email and submit relevant documents such as RTGS details, HRA Certificate and other documents within one month from the date of receipt of this letter. For those projects that involve ethical / biosafety / stem cell / wildlife clearances, the last date for submission of such documents can be extended up to two months from the date of receipt of this letter.
3. SERB has adopted Scientific Social Responsibility (SSR) policy which mandates SERB fellows to undertake SSR activities during their fellowship period. You are requested to read the SSR guidelines available under SSR menu in the online portal and choose the activities according to your preference. It is mandatory to submit SSR details along with RTGS and other documents.
4. The fellows shall be allowed to join the host institute only after the issue of "Sanction Order", subject to acceptance of above referred documents by SERB and fund availability.

5. The fellow is required to join within one month of issue of sanction order and submit the joining report, failing which the approval shall stand withdrawn. In exceptional cases, the joining period can be extended by another one-month, subject to the approval of competent authority in SERB.
6. The funds are expected to be released to host institution within three weeks of issue of sanction order. The Fellowship will be effective from the date of joining the host institution.
7. If you have submitted your thesis and awaiting the award of Ph.D. degree, you will receive Rs. 35000 p.m. (+ HRA, as per norms) as fellowship till you qualify for the eligible degree. The fellowship amount will be enhanced to Rs. 55000 p.m. from the eligible date, upon submission of the qualifying degree document. In such a case, you will be required to upload the qualifying degree certificate (even if provisional) through the online portal, with intimation to the undersigned by email.
8. You will be governed by the norms of host institution during the tenure of the fellowship. Please visit our website www.serbonline.in for the terms & conditions of the grant.

Kindly quote the reference number in all future correspondence. The Fellowship reference no. PDF/2020/001009 should be mentioned in all research outputs (publications/patents/general articles in print and electronic media etc.) arising from the fellowship.

With kind regards,

RULES FOR GUIDANCE OF THE CANDIDATE

1. The examination will be held according to the programme previously notified.
2. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened, half an hour on the first day and 15 minutes on subsequent days, before the time appointed for the commencement of the examination. Five minutes before the commencement of the examination, a Warning-Bell will be rung as a signal for all students to take their seats when all candidates must take their respective allotted seats bearing the Roll number given in the Admit Card.
3. Candidates shall bring their respective Admit Card and the University Registration Certificate every day of the Examination and shall produce them for inspection, whenever required. Candidates are liable to be expelled from the Examination Hall for failure to produce the Admit Card or the University Registration Certificate.
4. Candidate suffering from any form of contagious or infectious diseases, or from any illness or diseases considered to be prejudicial to the general body of students under examination, will not be admitted into or allowed to remain in the Examination Hall. Special arrangements may however, be made for candidates who are suffering from certain categories of diseases if application is made to the officer-in-charge with sufficient notice.
5. Before entering the Examination Hall candidates must deposit at a place set aside for the purpose books notes or other incriminating materials which are forbidden for candidates to have in their possession. Such articles may be left there only at the candidates' own risk. No clipboard, except absolutely blank one, should be used by a candidate as a support of the answer book during writing. Candidates found in possession of any incriminating materials(s) while under examination in contravention of these rules shall be liable to penalties including expulsion.
6. Under no circumstances will a candidate be allowed to appear at an examination at any place other than one approved by the University.
7. No candidate will be admitted or given a question paper more than 15 minutes after the examination has commenced provided that in special circumstances the officer-in-charge may admit a candidate who is late by not more than half an hour. In such case(s) he/she must complete the examination within time as specified in the examination programme.
8. Communication of any sort or in any form is strictly forbidden between candidates and other person whether inside or outside the Examination Hall. Smoking in the Examination Hall is strictly forbidden.
9. Candidates are required to sign their names and prove their identity as and when required to do so.
10. Candidates shall use main answer books and additional loose sheets supplied by the University. The answer books and loose sheets should be properly filled in by the candidates. Candidates must not write their names, names of the colleges or any other things which may disclose their identity on any page of the answer books. Candidates must not write any objectionable or improper remarks in their answer books.
11. Candidates must not write anything on any question paper or other paper, or carry away any writing or scribbles from the Examination Hall.
12. No candidate will be allowed to leave the Examination Hall until an hour has elapsed from the time when the papers are given out.
13. No candidate shall be allowed to finally leave the Examination Hall without submitting the answer book tagged with all the loose sheets. No candidate shall be allowed to re-enter the Examination Hall during the hours of examination once leaving it after submission of the answer book.
14. A warning bell will be rung every day five minutes before the time fixed for the close of the examination.
15. At the close of the examination a candidate must remain seated until his/her answer book is collected by the invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to remain in the Examination Hall after the close of the examination, except to allow respective answer books to be collected by the invigilator.
16. Candidates are warned against any attempt to adopt unfair means at the examination. Any breach or attempted breach of any of these or other examination rules will render them liable to expulsion and to any other penalty as the University may deem fit.
17. Non programming calculators not having memory safeguard facility may be used during examination for calculation purpose.
19. Candidates securing pass/qualifying marks in subject even after remaining absent in one or two papers at any University Examination (both P.G. and U.G.) will be considered to have passed/qualified in that subject if not otherwise specifically stated in the regulations for any particular examination, provided that such candidates who will remain absent in one or two papers in a subject may apply for cancellation of their examinations within 7 days of completion of the examination. Such cancellation shall be treated as loss of one chance.
20. Notwithstanding the issue of the Admit Card, the University shall have the right for any reasons which may appear to them sufficient, to cancel the admission of any candidate to any examination, whether before, during or after the examination. The University may also debar a candidate from appearing at any subsequent University Examination or Examinations. The decision of the University in all such cases shall be final.

5. Before entering the Examination Hall candidates must deposit at a place set aside for the purpose books notes or other incriminating materials which are forbidden for candidates to have in their possession. Such articles may be left there only at the candidates' own risk. No clipboard, except absolutely blank one, should be used by a candidate as a support of the answer book during writing. Candidates found in possession of any incriminating materials(s) while under examination in contravention of these rules shall be liable to penalties including expulsion.
6. Under no circumstances will a candidate be allowed to appear at an examination at any place other than one approved by the University.
7. No candidate will be admitted or given a question paper more than 15 minutes after the examination has commenced provided that in special circumstances the officer-in-charge may admit a candidate who is late by not more than half an hour. In such case(s) he/she must complete the examination within time as specified in the examination programme.
8. Communication of any sort or in any form is strictly forbidden between candidates and other person whether inside or outside the Examination Hall. Smoking in the Examination Hall is strictly forbidden.
9. Candidates are required to sign their names and prove their identity as and when required to do so.
10. Candidates shall use main answer books and additional loose sheets supplied by the University. The answer books and loose sheets should be properly filled in by the candidates. Candidates must not write their names, names of the colleges or any other things which may disclose their identity on any page of the answer books. Candidates must not write any objectionable or improper remarks in their answer books.
11. Candidates must not write anything on any question paper or other paper, or carry away any writing or scribbles from the Examination Hall.
12. No candidate will be allowed to leave the Examination Hall until an hour has elapsed from the time when the papers are given out.
13. No candidate shall be allowed to finally leave the Examination Hall without submitting the answer book tagged with all the loose sheets. No candidate shall be allowed to re-enter the Examination Hall during the hours of examination once leaving it after submission of the answer book.
14. A warning bell will be rung every day five minutes before the time fixed for the close of the examination.
15. At the close of the examination a candidate must remain seated until his/her answer book is collected by the invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to remain in the Examination Hall after the close of the examination, except to allow respective answer books to be collected by the invigilator.
16. Candidates are warned against any attempt to adopt unfair means at the examination. Any breach or attempted breach of any of these or other examination rules will render them liable to expulsion and to any other penalty as the University may deem fit.
17. Non programming calculators not having memory safeguard facility may be used during examination for calculation purpose.
19. Candidates securing pass/qualifying marks in subject even after remaining absent in one or two papers at any University Examination (both P.G. and U.G.) will be considered to have passed/qualified in that subject if not otherwise specifically stated in the regulations for any particular examination, provided that such candidates who will remain absent in one or two papers in a subject may apply for cancellation of their examinations within 7 days of completion of the examination. Such cancellation shall be treated as loss of one chance.
20. Notwithstanding the issue of the Admit Card, the University shall have the right for any reasons which may appear to them sufficient, to cancel the admission of any candidate to any examination, whether before, during or after the examination. The University may also debar a candidate from appearing at any subsequent University Examination or Examinations. The decision of the University in all such cases shall be final.
21. In any case not covered by the foregoing rules, reference shall be made to the officer-in-charge for special direction, and his decision shall be accepted as final.

15. At the close of the examination a candidate must remain seated until his/her answer book is collected by the invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to remain in the Examination Hall after the close of the examination, except to allow respective answer books to be collected by the invigilator.
16. Candidates are warned against any attempt to adopt unfair means at the examination. Any breach or attempted breach of any of these or other examination rules will render them liable to expulsion and to any other penalty as the University may deem fit.
17. Non programming calculators not having memory safeguard facility may be used during examination for calculation purpose.
19. Candidates securing pass/qualifying marks in subject even after remaining absent in one or two papers at any University Examination (both P.G. and U.G.) will be considered to have passed/qualified in that subject if not otherwise specifically stated in the regulations for any particular examination, provided that such candidates who will remain absent in one or two papers in a subject may apply for cancellation of their examinations within 7 days of completion of the examination. Such cancellation shall be treated as loss of one chance.
20. Notwithstanding the issue of the Admit Card, the University shall have the right for any reasons which may appear to them sufficient, to cancel the admission of any candidate to any examination, whether before, during or after the examination. The University may also debar a candidate from appearing at any subsequent University Examination or Examinations. The decision of the University in all such cases shall be final.
21. In any case not covered by the foregoing rules, reference shall be made to the officer-in-charge for special direction, and his decision shall be accepted as final.
22. Carrying Mobile Phone in Examination Hall is strictly prohibited.

RULES FOR GUIDANCE OF THE CANDIDATE

1. The examination will be held according to the programme previously notified.
2. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened, half an hour on the first day and 15 minutes on subsequent days, before the time appointed for the commencement of the examination. Five minutes before the commencement of the examination, a Warning-Bell will be rung as a signal for all students to take their seats when all candidates must take their respective allotted seats bearing the Roll number given in the Admit Card.
3. Candidates shall bring their respective Admit Card and the University Registration Certificate every day of the Examination and shall produce them for inspection, whenever required. Candidates are liable to be expelled from the Examination Hall for failure to produce the Admit Card or the University Registration Certificate.
4. Candidate suffering from any form of contagious or infectious diseases, or from any illness or diseases considered to be prejudicial to the general body of students under examination, will not be admitted into or allowed to remain in the Examination Hall. Special arrangements may however, be made for candidates who are suffering from certain categories of diseases if application is made to the officer-in-charge with sufficient notice.
5. Before entering the Examination Hall candidates must deposit at a place set aside for the purpose books notes or other incriminating materials which are forbidden for candidates to have in their possession. Such articles may be left there only at the candidates' own risk. No clipboard, except absolutely blank one, should be used by a candidate as a support of the answer book during writing. Candidates found in possession of any incriminating materials(s) while under examination in contravention of these rules shall be liable to penalties including expulsion.
6. Under no circumstances will a candidate be allowed to appear at an examination at any place other than one approved by the University.
7. No candidate will be admitted or given a question paper more than 15 minutes after the examination has commenced provided that in special circumstances the officer-in-charge may admit a candidate who is late by not more than half an hour. In such case(s) he/she must complete the examination within time as specified in the examination programme.
8. Communication of any sort or in any form is strictly forbidden between candidates and other person whether inside or outside the Examination Hall. Smoking in the Examination Hall is strictly forbidden.
9. Candidates are required to sign their names and prove their identity as and when required to do so.
10. Candidates shall use main answer books and additional loose sheets supplied by the University. The answer books and loose sheets should be properly filled in by the candidates. Candidates must not write their names, names of the colleges or any other things which may disclose their identity on any page of the answer books. Candidates must not write any objectionable or improper remarks in their answer books.
11. Candidates must not write anything on any question paper or other paper, or carry away any writing or scribbings from the Examination Hall.
12. No candidate will be allowed to leave the Examination Hall until an hour has elapsed from the time when the papers are given out.
13. No candidate shall be allowed to finally leave the Examination Hall without submitting the answer book tagged with all the loose sheets. No candidate shall be allowed to re-enter the Examination Hall during the hours of examination once leaving it after submission of the answer book.
14. A warning bell will be rung every day five minutes before the time fixed for the close of the examination.
15. At the close of the examination a candidate must remain seated until his/her answer book is collected by the invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to remain in the Examination Hall after the close of the examination, except to allow respective answer books to be collected by the invigilator.
16. Candidates are warned against any attempt to adopt unfair means at the examination. Any breach or attempted breach of any of these or other examination rules will render them liable to expulsion and to any other penalty as the University may deem fit.
17. Non programming calculators not having memory safeguard facility may be used during examination for calculation purpose.
18. Applications for review of results, if permissible as per the regulation, must be submitted within 15 working days from the date of issue (as will be indicated on the body of the marksheet) to the relevant marksheets.
19. Candidates securing pass/qualifying marks in subject even after remaining absent in one or two papers at any University Examination (both P.G. and U.G.) will be considered to have passed/qualified in that subject if not otherwise specifically stated in the regulations for any particular examination, provided that such candidates who will remain absent in one or two papers in a subject may apply for cancellation of their examinations within 7 days of completion of the examination. Such cancellation shall be treated as loss of one chance.
20. Notwithstanding the issue of the Admit Card, the University shall have the right for any reasons which may appear to them sufficient, to cancel the admission of any candidate to any examination, whether before, during or after the examination. The University may also debar a candidate from appearing at any subsequent University Examination or Examinations. The decision of the University in all such cases shall be final.

RULES FOR GUIDANCE OF THE CANDIDATE

1. The examination will be held according to the programme previously notified.
2. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened, half an hour on the first day and 15 minutes on subsequent days, before the time appointed for the commencement of the examination. Five minutes before the commencement of the examination, a Warning-Bell will be rung as a signal for all students to take their seats when all candidates must take their respective allotted seats bearing the Roll number given in the Admit Card.
3. Candidates shall bring their respective Admit Card and the University Registration Certificate every day of the Examination and shall produce them for inspection, whenever required. Candidates are liable to be expelled from the Examination Hall for failure to produce the Admit Card or the University Registration Certificate.
4. Candidate suffering from any form of contagious or infectious diseases, or from any illness or diseases considered to be prejudicial to the general body of students under examination, will not be admitted into or allowed to remain in the Examination Hall. Special arrangements may however, be made for candidates who are suffering from certain categories of diseases if application is made to the officer-in-charge with sufficient notice.
5. Before entering the Examination Hall candidates must deposit at a place set aside for the purpose books notes or other incriminating materials which are forbidden for candidates to have in their possession. Such articles may be left there only at the candidates' own risk. No clipboard, except absolutely blank one, should be used by a candidate as a support of the answer book during writing. Candidates found in possession of any incriminating material(s) while under examination in contravention of these rules shall be liable to penalties including expulsion.
6. Under no circumstances will a candidate be allowed to appear at an examination at any place other than one approved by the University.
7. No candidate will be admitted or given a question paper more than 15 minutes after the examination has commenced provided that in special circumstances the officer-in-charge may admit a candidate who is late by not more than half an hour. In such case(s) he/she must complete the examination within time as specified in the examination programme.
8. Communication of any sort or in any form is strictly forbidden between candidates and other person whether inside or outside the Examination Hall. Smoking in the Examination Hall is strictly forbidden.
9. Candidates are required to sign their names and prove their identity as and when required to do so.
10. Candidates shall use main answer books and additional loose sheets supplied by the University. The answer books and loose sheets should be properly filled in by the candidates. Candidates must not write their names, names of the colleges or any other things which may disclose their identity on any page of the answer books. Candidates must not write any objectionable or improper remarks in their answer books.
11. Candidates must not write anything on any question paper or other paper, or carry away any writing or scribbles from the Examination Hall.
12. No candidate will be allowed to leave the Examination Hall until an hour has elapsed from the time when the papers are given out.
13. No candidate shall be allowed to finally leave the Examination Hall without submitting the answer book tagged with all the loose sheets. No candidate shall be allowed to re-enter the Examination Hall during the hours of examination once leaving it after submission of the answer book.
14. A warning bell will be rung every day five minutes before the time fixed for the close of the examination.
15. At the close of the examination a candidate must remain seated until his/her answer book is collected by the invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to remain in the Examination Hall after the close of the examination, except to allow respective answer books to be collected by the invigilator.
16. Candidates are warned against any attempt to adopt unfair means at the examination. Any breach or attempted breach of any of these or other examination rules will render them liable to expulsion and to any other penalty as the University may deem fit.
17. Non programming calculators not having memory safeguard facility may be used during examination for calculation purpose.
18. Applications for review of results, if permissible as per the regulation, must be submitted within 15 working days from the date of issue (as will be indicated on the body of the marksheet) to the relevant marksheets.
19. Candidates securing pass/qualifying marks in subject even after remaining absent in one or two papers at any University Examination (both P.G. and U.G.) will be considered to have passed/qualified in that subject if not otherwise specifically stated in the regulations for any particular examination, provided that such candidates who will remain absent in one or two papers in a subject may apply for cancellation of their examinations within 7 days of completion of the examination. Such cancellation shall be treated as loss of one chance.
20. Notwithstanding the issue of the Admit Card, the University shall have the right for any reasons which may appear to them sufficient, to cancel the admission of any candidate to any examination, whether before, during or after the examination. The University may also debar a candidate from appearing at any subsequent University Examination or Examinations. The decision of the University in all such cases shall be final.
21. In any case not covered by the foregoing rules, reference shall be made to the officer-in-charge for special direction, and his decision shall be accepted as final.
22. Carrying Mobile Phone in Examination Hall is strictly prohibited.

Candidates must not write any objectionable or improper remarks in their answer books.
11. Candidates must not write anything on any question paper or other paper, or carry away any writing or scribbles from the Examination Hall.
12. No candidate will be allowed to leave the Examination Hall until an hour has elapsed from the time when the papers are given out.
13. No candidate shall be allowed to finally leave the Examination Hall without submitting the answer book tagged with all the loose sheets. No candidate shall be allowed to re-enter the Examination Hall during the hours of examination once leaving it after submission of the answer book.
14. A warning bell will be rung every day five minutes before the time fixed for the close of the examination.
15. At the close of the examination a candidate must remain seated until his/her answer book is collected by the invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to remain in the Examination Hall after the close of the examination, except to allow respective answer books to be collected by the invigilator.
16. Candidates are warned against any attempt to adopt unfair means at the examination. Any breach or attempted breach of any of these or other examination rules will render them liable to expulsion and to any other penalty as the University may deem fit.
17. Non programming calculators not having memory safeguard facility may be used during examination for calculation purpose.
18. Applications for review of results, if permissible as per the regulation, must be submitted within 15 working days from the date of issue (as will be indicated on the body of the marksheet) to the relevant marksheets.
19. Candidates securing pass/qualifying marks in subject even after remaining absent in one or two papers at any University Examination (both P.G. and U.G.) will be considered to have passed/qualified in that subject if not otherwise specifically stated in the regulations for any particular examination, provided that such candidates who will remain absent in one or two papers in a subject may apply for cancellation of their examinations within 7 days of completion of the examination. Such cancellation shall be treated as loss of one chance.
20. Notwithstanding the issue of the Admit Card, the University shall have the right for any reasons which may appear to them sufficient, to cancel the admission of any candidate to any examination, whether before, during or after the examination. The University may also debar a candidate from appearing at any subsequent University Examination or Examinations. The decision of the University in all such cases shall be final.
21. In any case not covered by the foregoing rules, reference shall be made to the officer-in-charge for special direction, and his decision shall be accepted as final.
22. Carrying Mobile Phone in Examination Hall is strictly prohibited.

14. A warning bell will be rung every day five minutes before the time fixed for the close of the examination.
15. At the close of the examination a candidate must remain seated until his/her answer book is collected by the invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to remain in the Examination Hall after the close of the examination, except to allow respective answer books to be collected by the invigilator.
16. Candidates are warned against any attempt to adopt unfair means at the examination. Any breach or attempted breach of any of these or other examination rules will render them liable to expulsion and to any other penalty as the University may deem fit.
17. Non programming calculators not having memory safeguard facility may be used during examination for calculation purpose.
18. Applications for review of results, if permissible as per the regulation, must be submitted within 15 working days from the date of issue (as will be indicated on the body of the marksheet) to the relevant marksheets.
19. Candidates securing pass/qualifying marks in subject even after remaining absent in one or two papers at any University Examination (both P.G. and U.G.) will be considered to have passed/qualified in that subject if not otherwise specifically stated in the regulations for any particular examination, provided that such candidates who will remain absent in one or two papers in a subject may apply for cancellation of their examinations within 7 days of completion of the examination. Such cancellation shall be treated as loss of one chance.
20. Notwithstanding the issue of the Admit Card, the University shall have the right for any reasons which may appear to them sufficient, to cancel the admission of any candidate to any examination, whether before, during or after the examination. The University may also debar a candidate from appearing at any subsequent University Examination or Examinations. The decision of the University in all such cases shall be final.
21. In any case not covered by the foregoing rules, reference shall be made to the officer-in-charge for special direction, and his decision shall be accepted as final.

3. Candidates shall bring their respective Admit Card and the University Registration Certificate every day of the Examination and shall produce them for inspection, whenever required. Candidates are liable to be expelled from the Examination Hall for failure to produce the Admit Card or the University Registration Certificate.
4. Candidate suffering from any form of contagious or infectious diseases, or from any illness or diseases considered to be prejudicial to the general body of students under examination, will not be admitted into or allowed to remain in the Examination Hall. Special arrangements may however, be made for candidates who are suffering from certain categories of diseases if application is made to the officer-in-charge with sufficient notice.
5. Before entering the Examination Hall candidates must deposit at a place set aside for the purpose books notes or other incriminating materials which are forbidden for candidates to have in their possession. Such articles may be left there only at the candidates' own risk. No clipboard, except absolutely blank one, should be used by a candidate as a support of the answer book during writing. Candidates found in possession of any incriminating materials(s) while under examination in contravention of these rules shall be liable to penalties including expulsion.
6. Under no circumstances will a candidate be allowed to appear at an examination at any place other than one approved by the University.
7. No candidate will be admitted or given a question paper more than 15 minutes after the examination has commenced provided that in special circumstances the officer-in-charge may admit a candidate who is late by not more than half an hour. In such case(s) he/she must complete the examination within time as specified in the examination programme.
8. Communication of any sort or in any form is strictly forbidden between candidates and other person whether inside or outside the Examination Hall. Smoking in the Examination Hall is strictly forbidden.
9. Candidates are required to sign their names and prove their identity as and when required to do so.
10. Candidates shall use main answer books and additional loose sheets supplied by the University. The answer books and loose sheets should be properly filled in by the candidates. Candidates must not write their names, names of the colleges or any other things which may disclose their identity on any page of the answer books. Candidates must not write any objectionable or improper remarks in their answer books.
11. Candidates must not write anything on any question paper or other paper, or carry away any writing or scribbles from the Examination Hall.
12. No candidate will be allowed to leave the Examination Hall until an hour has elapsed from the time when the papers are given out.
13. No candidate shall be allowed to finally leave the Examination Hall without submitting the answer book tagged with all the loose sheets. No candidate shall be allowed to re-enter the Examination Hall during the hours of examination once leaving it after submission of the answer book.
14. A warning bell will be rung every day five minutes before the time fixed for the close of the examination.
15. At the close of the examination a candidate must remain seated until his/her answer book is collected by the invigilator. No candidate will be allowed to remain in the Examination Hall after the close of the examination, except to allow respective answer books to be collected by the invigilator.
16. Candidates are warned against any attempt to adopt unfair means at the examination. Any breach or attempted breach of any of these or other examination rules will render them liable to expulsion and to any other penalty as the University may deem fit.
17. Non-programming calculators not having memory safeguard facility may be used during examination for calculation purpose.
18. Applications for review of results, if permissible as per the regulation, must be submitted within 15 working days from the date of issue (as will be indicated on the body of the marksheet) to the relevant marksheet.
19. Candidates securing pass/qualifying marks in subject even after remaining absent in one or two papers at any University Examination (both P.G. and U.G.) will be considered to have passed/qualified in that subject if not otherwise specifically stated in the regulations for any particular examination, provided that such candidates who will remain absent in one or two papers in a subject may apply for cancellation of their examinations within 7 days of completion of the examination. Such cancellation shall be treated as loss of one chance.
20. Notwithstanding the issue of the Admit Card, the University shall have the right for any reasons which may appear to them sufficient, to cancel the admission of any candidate to any examination, whether before, during or after the examination. The University may also debar a candidate from appearing at any subsequent University Examination or Examinations. The decision of the University in all such cases shall be final.
21. In any case not covered by the foregoing rules, reference shall be made to the officer-in-charge for special direction, and his decision shall be accepted as final.
